The Deeds Of God Through The Franks: A Translation Of Guibert De Nogents Gesta Dei Per Francos

Guibert Robert Levine

The Deeds of God through the Franks: A Translation of Guibert de Nogent’s Gesta Dei per Francos by Robert Levine is a narrative of the First Crusade by Guibert of Nogent written between 1100 and 1107. Levine's translation is the first complete English edition of this work, which is considered a key source for understanding the First Crusade. The text is filled with Partisan outbreaks, which Levine meticulously reconstructs and analyses.

Guibert de Nogent was a Benedictine monk, canonist, and historian who wrote extensively about the events of his time. His Gesta Dei per Francos is one of the most significant sources for the First Crusade, providing a detailed account of the events and personalities involved.

Levine's translation is highly regarded for its accuracy and clarity, making it an essential resource for students and scholars of medieval history. The work is part of Boydell Press's Boydell Medieval Texts series, and it is available in both hardcover and paperback editions. Robert Levine's introduction and notes provide valuable context and analysis, making this edition an indispensable tool for anyone interested in the First Crusade or medieval history.
